

SENATE OF THE
PARLIAMENT OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC

13th TERM

XXX.

RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE

Delivered at the XXth session, held on June X, 2021

on declaring Miloš Zeman incapable of carrying out the office of President of the Republic

The Senate of the Czech Parliament

aware of its irreplaceable role in protecting the constitutional system and its ability to function, and considering the fundamental values on which the Constitution is built,

I. Declares, consistent with Art. 66 (first sentence) of the constitutional law No. 1/1993 Coll., the Constitution of the CR, in the wording of subsequent constitutional laws, that Miloš Zeman is not able to carry out the function of the President of the Republic;

II. Recalls

1. Resolution No. 171 of the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic from its 11th session, held on April 21, 2021, on relations between the Czech Republic and the Russian Federation with regard to the attacks in Vrbeřice;
2. Resolution No. 415 of the Senate of the Parliament of the CR from its 23rd session, held on May 20, 2020, relating to the attempts by the People's Republic of China to interfere in the internal affairs of the Czech Republic;
3. Resolution No. 11 of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defense and Security from the 3rd session, held on December 2, 2020, on the foreign policy of the CR and the security of the President of the Republic;
4. Resolution No. 131 of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defense and Security from the 14th session, held on May 16, 2018, on the presence of the novichok poison in the Czech Republic;
5. Resolution No. 128 of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defense and Security from the 13th session, held on April 3, 2018, on the statements of Miloš Zeman and those closest to him;

III. Charges the President of the Senate to give notice of this resolution to the President of the Chamber of Deputies of the Parliament of the CR, the Prime Minister and the President.

President of the Senate

Senate Verifier